HILTON HEAD, S. C., June 26, 1866. THE ONE HUNDRED AND PORTY-FOURTH NEW YORK REGIMENT.
This efficient regiment, which for almost two years has been identified with the Department of the South, goes North by the steamship Fulton, Captain Wotton, to-day. ginally consisted of nine hundred and fifty-six men, who were raised in a little over a fortnight's time, in the sumer of 1862. They were first sent to the defences of ington, and remained there till the spring of 1863, then they were sent to Suffolk, and remained there till Longstreet's siege failed. They were afterwards in Gen Gordon's command, aided in Keyes' demonstration nst Richmond, and subsequently served in the Army the Potomac. They arrived in this departmen August, 1863, and were on Morris Island during the ortion of General Gillmore's siege of Charl quently the regiment was in Florida, for a time in rvice. In June and July, 1864, it took part in he demonstration on John's Island. In November is ras in Potter's brigade, of General Hatch's coast divi rman against the Savannah and Charleston Ratiross everal sharp fights at Deveaux Neck, one at Cooss hatchie and several lesser fights and skirmishes. The battle of Honey Hill was a sharp one, resulti

Ex-GOVERROR CLARE OF MESIBETTI IN FORT PULASEL.
The steamer Continental arrived here from New Orleans yesterday, having on board as a prisoner of war, ex-Governor Clark, of Mississippi, who was sent here to be confined in Fort Pulaski. He was transferred from the Continental to the steamer W. W. Colt, and on her sent to the fort under a guard.

Colonel Benjamin Alston and wife, of Georgetown, S. C., were passengers by the same boat. They were permitted to land here, and have gone to Georgetown.

EX. TRENHOLM,
formerly a member of the robel cabinet, who was some time since sent to Fort Pulaski as a prisoner of war, has been released by orders from Washington. He was here a few days since, but has now gone to Charleston.

"ITER NEW SOUTE," an enterprising little weekly paper here, deserves a notice from your correspondent. I am often, as are all newspaper correspondents who come here, indebted to Mr. J. H. Sears, its enterprising and courteous proprietor, for important favors. The New South has been running over three years, and is very popular among the inhabitants here. Mr. Sears has ever been a zealous champion of the interests of the people of this department, and they appreciate him.

ERREYER MAJOR GENERAL EUFUS SAXTON, who has charge of the freedmen of Georgia, South Carolina and Florida, goes North to-day by the steamer Fulton, to confer with General Howard, the Secretary of War, and others, in regard to the interests of his command. He is accompanied by his lady.

result must be the same. There is a growing hostility to the government throughout Upper Canada, arising out of the people by taxation for defence. The political sor and along the frontier of the St. Lawrence and Collingwood, Sarnia and other lake ports are left oper the armies of the United States. They maintain that the foster a more friendly feeling between themselves and only be thrown into the country in the summer season; that the province does not furnish the raw material for the manufacture of arms and ammunition, and that with no communication with the mother country for seven months in the year, Canada would fall an easy prey to the invaders. This is the line of argument pursued by all who speak upon the subject in public or private. In the last Leguslature there were eight members, representing about one-eighth of Upper Canada, who opposed the confederation scheme on these grounds, and now it is believed that the public sentimen has so far been influenced by the protest of the lower provinces and the discussion of the question that the project will not obtain a majority in either Upper or Lower Canada.

The recent presence in Canada at this time of Major General Dix was a matter of much speculation to the Canadians and concern to the Southerners, who feared that his visit in some way related to themselves. There are a large number of robels now in the city; but they are careful to mind their own business.

There are a large number of Americans in Toronto, who give it the only life it possesses; but on the Fourth of July they will no doubt bid it farewell for a season to join the citizens of Rochester in the celebration of our doubly holy national day The American Express Company advertise an excursion to Rochester by their fine steamer Bay State. They will have a large party.

The local politicians of this city are having their season, as well as those of Hamilton, and, like it, the police and the aldermen are the subjects of the gossip.

Tragedy Near Bowmanville, C. W. BOWMANVILLE, C. W., June 29, 1865.

Miss Munson, a school teacher, accompanied by another young lady, while driving out, called at the house of James Kerr at Orono, five miles from this place, and miles from here, at two o'clock in the morning, Miss Munson shot Kerr with a revolver, mortally wounding him. She is now in custody. Various rumors prevail,

The Arion Society—a well known German musical organization—celebrated yesterday at the Lion Park, on val, which was a very feshionable and most brilliant bers, of whom about thirty are active singers, who gave a concert, which commenced about four o'clock in the afternoon, in which they were assisted by Thomas' orchestra. Some favorite and complicated compositions were successfully rendered by the singers of the Arion, and it is therefore to be regretted that they are not to participate in the great German musical demonstration which is to take place in this city next month. The following was the programme of the Arion concert yesterday.

1. March (Hongroise). Berlioz
2. Overture (Rienzi). Wagner
3. Harfner's Lied. Zimmermann
Arion. Meverbeer

laboring men of various kinds in the city is, are we to have one celebration of the great national anniversary, or are we to have two? The Fourth, which comes on Tuesday, it appears, has been announced as the legal celebrating day, and military and civic preparations are being made for the observance of that day. But this does not seem to be enough for the people alluded to under the circumstances. At least the avalanche of letters we are daily in receipt of, upon the subject of also celebrating on Monday, the 3d of July, would appear to indicate as much. One correspondent calls upon us, for our country's sake, and it is sake, and for the sake of his wife and children to ask the city and State authorities to call for a demenstration on the 3d, or for the closing of all business on that day, as well as on the day following. This writer thinks it will be the only chance he will have for a holiday during the summer, and would be greavy obliged to Mayor Gunther if he would listen to his petition. Another says:—'The appointment of Monday, July 3, as a day of thanksylving to God for delivering us from the horrors of war and enabling us to triumph over our enemies in the cause of country, peace and justice; the observance of the old gisrous Fourth of July in amanner never before attempted, by a grand display of the military, seems to be demanded by the people.'' And still another remarks:—'The occasion calls not only for an unusual, but an unprecedented jubilee, and a single day is hardly sufficient for the celebration in our great city of such glorious events as signing the Declaration of Independence, the orushing out of a monaster rebellion, and the consequent return of peace. Two days were consumed in the grand review at Washington. Give us two days for our Fourth of July.'' And so en, almost ad injunitum.

SPECIAL ORDERS—NO. 24.

Hearquaress, Shoond Division, N. G. S. N. Y., BROOKLYN, June 24, 1865.

The Fifth and Eleventh brigades and the davision staff will parade on the 4th day of July next. The regiments, battallions and batteries will assemble at their respective armories, at six o'clock A. M. of that day, uniformed, armed and equipped. Orders will be issued hereafter for the formation of the line of march. The command will dismiss at ten o'clock A. M. The national anniversary will this year be celebrated as a day of special rejoicing for the successful close of the terrific war of four years, which has established the national Union and freedom, and its most interesting incident will be the welcome home of our brave soldiers who have so nobly sustained the national honor and welfare. These of the command who have made engagements to leave the city on the Fourth, or contemplated doing so, will recollect that the duty now required of them is a public one, to which they must sacrifice private pleasure, and that it is especially the citizen soldier who should lead is blotting out the odious motto, that "Republics are always ungrateful, and substituting in its place that better sentiment, "The roublic never forgets its defenders." TREASURY DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, D. C., June 27, 1865.
The various rules and regulations heretofore prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury in regard to the above named subjects having been rendered nugatory in whole or in part by the changed condition of affairs in the Southern States, and Executive orders and proclama-tions, and the War Department having assumed charge of the act of Congress approved March 3, 1865, the following instructions as to the duties of officers of the Treasury Department in the premises are prescribed, and will be regarded as in full force and effect immediately on receipt thereof by any officer whose action is in an wise affected thereby:-

First.--All restrictions on commercial in nd with States and parts of States heretofore declared in insurrection, and on the purchase, transportation an the transportation thereto or therein of arms, ammunition, articles from which ammunition is made, gray uni orms and gray cloth, and except also those relating to property heretofore purchased by the agents or capture by or surrendered to the military torces of the United States; nor will any fees or taxes be charged or collected except those imposed by the customs and internal reve-nue laws; and the supervision necessary to prevent the shipment of the prohibited articles will be exercised only by the regular and ordinary officers of the cus acting under the revenue laws of the United States.

Second.—Subordinate officers discharging duties in rereferred to, will consider their official connection with this department terminating with the 30th inst., without

Third.-Agents for the purchase of products of the nsurrectionary States, on government account, will close their official business east of the Mississippi river with the transactions of the 13th inst., and west of it with the transactions of the 24th inst., returning to sellers all property or money received or collected since those dates respectively, and using such despatch in the promises that their connection with the department may, if possible, terminate with the 30th inst.

Fourth.—Officers of this department charged with the duty of receiving and collecting, or having in their possession or under their control, captured, abandoned or confiscable personal property, will dispose of the same in accordance with regulations on the subject heretofore prescribed, at the earliest time consistent with the public interests, and will refrain from receiving such from military or naval authorities after the 30th instant. This will not be considered, however, as interfering with the operations of the agents now engaged in receiving or ordecting the property recently captured by or surrendered to the forces of the United States, whether or not covered by or included in the records, &c., delivered to the United States military of Treasury authorities by rebal military officers or cotton agents. Those so acting will continue to discharge the duties thus imposed until such property is all received or satisfactorily accounted for, and until the amount so secured is shipped or otherwise disposed of under the regulations on the subject heretofore prescribed; and they will use all the means at their command with the utmost vigor to the end that all the property so collected, captured or turned over shall be secured to the United States with the least possible cost and delay.

THE ARMY.

Farewell Order of General Meade. WASHINGTON, June 29, 1868.
The farewell order of General Meade is published.

The farewell order of General Meade is published. It is as follows:—

Headquarters, Aart of the President of the United States. To-day, by virtue of the same authority, the army censing to exist, I have to announce my transfer of other duties and my separation from you. It unnecessary to enumerate all that has cocurred in these two eventful years, from the grand and decisive battle of Gettysburg, the turning point of the war, to the surrender of the army of Northern Virginia at Appointation Court House. Sames it to say that history will do you justice. A grateful country will honor the living, cherish and support the disabled, and sincerely mourn the dead. In parting from you, your commanding General will ever bear in memory your noble devotion to your country, your patience and cheerfulness under all the privations and sacratees you have been called on to endure.

Soldbias—Having accomplished the work set before us, having vindicated the honor and integrity of our government and flag, let us return thenke to Almighty God for his blessing in granting us victory and passe, and let us earnestly pray for strength and light to discharge them as soldiers.

Major General, United States Army.
